

Trade Association Participation

During 2023, Alaska Air Group paid dues to the following trade associations of more than $25,000 and who spend 10 percent or more of their revenues lobbying: Airlines for America, Regional Airline Association, and the Association of Washington Business.

Based on the information the Company received for 2023, the following amounts of Alaska Air Group dues or payments used for lobbying were as follows:

- ❖ Airlines for America: $426,600
- ❖ Regional Airline Association: $30,500
- ❖ Association of Washington Business: $18,750