

Exhibit 4: Trade Association Participation 2024

During 2024, Alaska Air Group paid dues to the following trade associations of more than $25,000 and who spend 10 percent or more of their revenues lobbying: Airlines for America, U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Regional Airline Association, and the Association of Washington Business.

Based on the information the Company received for 2024, the following amounts of Alaska Air Group dues or payments used for lobbying were as follows:

- ❖ Airlines for America: $65,008
- ❖ U.S. Chamber of Commerce: $10,500
- ❖ Regional Airline Association: $23,521
- ❖ Association of Washington Business: $18,750